Currently, the defense is struggling, which has put a lot of pressure on the Cowboys' offense during their loss to the Broncos. It's becoming increasingly crucial for them to address their defensive issues, and it remains to be seen if they will make any moves before the trade deadline to bolster their roster.

Changes This Year: The Cowboys fortified their roster in 2025 with key moves including signing OT La'el Collins and OG Geron Christian, while extending OT Tyler Smith through 2030. They added several players to their practice squad such as QB Will Grier and CB Robert Rochell to maintain depth. The team traded star LB Micah Parsons for NT Kenny Clark but continues to rely on a strong core led by Dak Prescott at QB.
