J.J. McCarthy's current performance raises concerns about the Vikings' playoff prospects this year. It's surprising to recall their 14-game win season last year, especially considering Sam Darnold was leading the charge then. The contrast in quarterback play is a key factor that could impact their playoff

Head Coach: Kevin O'Connell

Off. Coord: Wes Phillips

Def. Coord: Brian Flores

Changes This Year: The Vikings enter 2025 with key offseason moves including the first-round draft pick of offensive lineman Donovan Jackson and the acquisition of quarterback Carson Wentz after trading Sam Howell. They bolstered their receiving corps and running back depth with signings and draft rookies like Myles Price. The team faced some injury setbacks and roster shuffling but aims to build on last year's surprising 14-3

Winning on the road in less-than-stellar fashion against weaker opponents is acceptable for the Packers, especially considering earlier losses to teams like the Browns and Panthers. However, there's a growing need for them to elevate their level of play as the season progresses.

Changes This Year: The Packers enter 2025 with a shifted roster and identity — trading away stalwarts Kenny Clark and Jaire Alexander while adding Micah Parsons and drafting WR Matthew Golden. Their offense leans on Jordan Love, with Josh Jacobs expected to carry a heavy workload in a more balanced attack. The front office also saw change as Ed Policy officially became team president/CEO, signaling new
