Coming off their bye, the Broncos are in firm control of their division, largely thanks to a dominant defense that has set the tone all season. However, as they push into the second half of the season, it's crucial for the offense to step up and contribute more consistently. With the defense performing at an elite

Changes This Year: The Broncos made key additions like signing RB Deuce Vaughn and extending LB Nik Bonitto through 2029. They also promoted several players such as FB Adam Prentice and QB Sam Ehlinger to the active roster while managing injuries to starters like Dre Greenlaw. The team continues its rebuilding effort with depth moves across offense and defense as they seek consistency in 2025.

Changes This Year: The Washington Commanders made several key roster moves in 2025, signing DT Javon Kinlaw to a three-year deal to bolster their run defense after releasing Jonathan Allen. They re-signed WR Terry McLaurin to a three-year extension and added veteran OLB Von Miller on a one-year deal. The team also traded draft picks to acquire LT Laremy Tunsil and focused on strengthening the defensive line
