MFT TEAM OUTLOOK

Carolina travels to New Orleans needing a performance that is useful across an entire game. Recent receiving production can identify an option to watch without guaranteeing the same scoring return. The offense should aim to sustain possessions and preserve multiple ways to advance. Current availability remains a necessary part of evaluating whether those opportunities can repeat. Latest completed result: 21-26 against DEN. Week 10: at NO.

MFT TEAM OUTLOOK

New Orleans has several offensive roles worth following, but recent production should lead to a closer look rather than an automatic projection. Carolina presents a chance to test whether receiving involvement and rushing opportunities hold. Managers should distinguish a returning player earning work from a fully established weekly floor, while checking the current backfield availability. Latest completed result: 23-22 against CLE. Week 10: vs. CAR.
