MFT TEAM OUTLOOK

Washington has produced several receiving options, making the next distribution of targets especially useful to watch. A divisional trip requires a fresh plan even when the opponent is familiar. Recent catches identify opportunity without guaranteeing the same player leads again. Managers should compare routes, participation and repeated involvement before turning one productive game into a permanent lineup assumption. Latest completed result: 13-20 against LA. Week 10: at NYG.

MFT TEAM OUTLOOK

The Giants have an opportunity to strengthen their position in another divisional matchup. Washington requires a new defensive plan rather than a replay of the previous game. Keeping possessions productive would help preserve offensive flexibility. Fantasy managers should favor evidence of repeated involvement over assuming that one recent score establishes a settled weekly role. Latest completed result: 19-11 against PHI. Week 10: vs. WAS.
